Dear President

The Global Sikh Council (GSC) Thank you for your press release of 4 March 2020 for condemning the attack on Sikh worshippers in Har Rai Sahib Gurdwara, Kabul Afghanistan. Thank you for understanding the sorrow of the Sikh community at this difficult time. We very much appreciate your kind condolences to the bereaved families and your wishes for the speedy recovery of the injured.

Thank you for condemning the attack in strongest possible terms as a crime against humanity and showing solidarity with the Sikh community at this hour of our grief. The GSC with a membership in 30 countries, fully agrees with the noble values expressed by Pope Francis that 'violence promoted and carried out in the name of religion can only discredit itself'.

Sikhism teaches that, 'we all spring from the one Divine Light. God the Maker has moulded one mass of clay into vessels of diverse shapes. God the True one pervades in all. We should respect all human beings. 'Thank you again for sharing in our grief and showing your commitment to protecting the sanctity of life.

Yours Sincerely

Lady Singh
